

State of the Art Virtual Training Series: Creating the Foundation for Effective Employment and Day Services

The Nebraska Council on Developmental Disabilities is partnering with TransCen to offer free webinars designed to promote community-based days services and to improve employment opportunities for individuals with disabilities. These “state of the art” sessions are ideal for disability employment professionals, special educators, policy makers, families and self-advocates.

Customized Employment 101

REGISTER HERE >

Join us for this insightful three-part webinar series designed to equip employment professionals, educators and families with the essential knowledge and strategies to create meaningful employment opportunities for individuals with complex disabilities.

- June 3, 2025 (2:00 to 3:00 CT): Discovery and Person-Centered Planning
- June 10, 2025 (2:00 to 3:00 CT): Job Development and Employer Engagement
- June 24, 2025 (2:00 to 3:00 CT): Job Coaching and Workplace Supports

Coaching for Success: A Toolkit for Job Coaches

REGISTER HERE >

Join us to learn more about taking an intentional approach to supporting individuals with disabilities on the job. Topics include teaching new skills, using data to measure growth and planning to fade supports.

- July 8, 2025 (2:00 to 3:00 CT): The Keys to Success
- July 15, 2025 (2:00 to 3:00 CT): Building Skills, Connections and Independence

Building Meaningful Lives: A New day for Day Services

REGISTER HERE >

Please join us for a 3-part series of webinars that will look at how community-based Day Services can be used to build meaningful lives and create pathways to community inclusion and employment.

- August 7, 2025 (2:00 to 3:00 CT): A New Day for Day Services
- August 14, 2025 (2:00 to 3:00 CT): Providing Person-Driven, Community-Based Services
- August 21, 2025 (2:00 to 3:00 CT): Creating Pathways to Employment

For more information please contact Sean Roy at sroy@transcen.org